

Occupational Health, Safety, Environmental and Community Policy

Liberty Mines Inc. views the health and safety of its employees, contractors, and others who may be affected by our activities to be of paramount importance. We are committed to preventing occupational illness and injury in the workplace and to conducting our business in a safe and responsible manner. We believe that operating within a sound environmental program and engaging with all relevant stakeholders in the community in which we operate will only improve our reputation.

Liberty commits to:

- Establishing a risk based management system that integrates Health, Safety and Environmental standards into all of our operations to ensure that we meet or exceed applicable laws governing our activities in order to achieve our zero harm objectives;
- Providing proper training to employees at all levels in order to systematically identify, evaluate, control and where possible eliminate potential risks to our workers and the environment;
- Communicating to our employees, contractors and visitors their responsibilities under our health, safety and environmental system, corporate policies and applicable legislation;
- Conducting regular health, safety and environmental audits to verify compliance with Liberty's policies and applicable legislation;
- Continually improving our health, safety and environmental program by promptly investigating all incidents and to take effective measures to minimize or eliminate the possibility of recurrence;
- Respecting the traditional rights of indigenous peoples; we will establish relationships based on active communication.
- Working with the communities in which we operate to contribute to social infrastructure needs or programs where possible;
- Providing the necessary resources to effectively communicate, implement and manage this policy.

With the view of continually improving our health, safety and environmental performance as a Company, we will periodically review the effectiveness of our objectives and adjust them as needed.

Our commitment to health, safety, the environment and the community forms an integral part of how we do business at Liberty Mines Inc. and it is up to all of us to ensure that we hold one another accountable to deliver on these objectives.
